

Biography

Dr. Susanne Fuchs

Susanne Fuchs was born in Mannheim in 1964. From 1983 to 1988 she studied veterinary medicine at Justus Liebig University in Giessen, and earned her doctorate there in 1992.

From 2013 to 2016 earned her MBA from the Open University in England.

Susanne Fuchs worked as a vet in practices and clinics from 1989 to 2011. From 2005 to 2011 she ran her own cytology and hematology laboratory.

Susanne Fuchs has international experience from having spent several years in England.

As a third-generation member of the Fuchs family, which holds the majority in the share capital of FUCHS PETROLUB SE through an asset management company, she is a highly involved member of the family business. At the FUCHS PETROLUB Annual General Meeting which was held on May 5th, 2017 she was elected to the Supervisory Board and its committees.

In addition to an Advisory Board function, Susanne Fuchs does voluntary work and has done so in Germany and England for the past almost 20 years.

Mannheim, May 8th, 2017